Attorneys for Thomas A. Dillon, Independent
Fiduciary of Employers Mutual Plans

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Thomas A. Dillon, Independent Fiduciary of Employers Mutual Plans,

Plaintiff,
v.

American International Specialty Lines Insurance
Company and National Union Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh

Defendants.

CASE NO.: CV-N-06-0348

PLAINTIFF'S NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT
AND EX PARTE MOTION REQUESTING
ENTRY OF A STAY ORDER: ORDER

No Hearing Requested

TO THE COURT AND DEFENDANTS AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL SPECIALTY LINES
INSURANCE COMPANY AND NATIONAL UNION FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF PITTSBURGH:

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT Plaintiff Thomas A. Dillon ("Dillon") and Defendants American International Specialty Lines Insurance Company and National Union Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh have agreed to resolve this matter by way of settlement. Because the defendants have not yet made an appearance in the case and will in all likelihood not need to do so, Dillon requests ex parte that the Court enter an Order staying the matter to

1 allow the parties to prepare settlement documents and to have them approved by the Court in
2 underlying litigation. Dillon will dismiss the case when the settlement agreement has been so
3 approved. This application is made on an ex parte basis in order that the stay can be entered
4 without the need for the defendants to respond to Dillon's Complaint. To Dillon's knowledge,
5 the defendants support this ex parte Motion, and would join in the ex parte Motion except that
6 they have not yet appeared in this action.
